Oksana Krovytska

soprano, New York City Opera "Diva Award" honoree

"Not many performers in this country know the Ukrainian repertoire well enough to give such a performance, and the result was fascinating — a glimpse of musical riches hardly suspected by American audiences. The performances were both skilled and fervent, the music — Ukrainian and non-Ukrainian — carefully selected for quality and interest." — The Washington Post's Joseph McLellan reviewing her 2001 TWG Cultural Fund concert with pianist Volodymyr Vynnytsky.
